

Effectiveness Ranking

A graph is a representation of data that visually encodes numerical values into attributes such as lines, symbols and colors. The Cleveland-McGill scale can be used to select the most effective attribute(s) for your purpose.

